DELIGHTFULLY UNEXPECTED

Mark is a specialist in getting people to open up and share the best parts about themselves in a personalized and fun cartoon experience that can be described as part vision board, part visual coaching session and spontaneous comedy show!

Having over 25 years of extensive international event experience, Mark is able to effortlessly connect with people in any setting. His powerful perception, presence and sense of intuition will amaze and delight! Often it's been said: "How did he know that about me?"

Each guest's personalized artwork can be printed on the spot and, or emailed. Add even more entertainment value by having the whole process live on a big screen for the whole room to enjoy with your your brand prominently displayed on every picture!
Laughter, fun & connection through a uniquely memorable experience is guaranteed!!!
